Dear General

When I left you I promis'd to write to Mrs. Lincoln, which I was about to do, but hearing she was in Boston, I Luckily met her & Son, in the Street — Gave her your Letters, & the true State of your Leg &c. — "Pray how does it do" I hope much better than when I left you. — I tell all your Friends (who are very Anxious for you) that you'll bring it home again; Pray dont make me a Liar. ———

"Our Genl. Court have purchas'd a Large — Quantity of Clothing, sufficient to cloath the whole Army, which is now making up, & will be sent on soon.

"Genl. Burgoyne & his Troops are Quarter'd in Cambridge — they are not allowd to go into Boston. He expects a Frigate for himself & Transports for the Troops to carry them to England —

England. there's not any of them arrived yet

It's a matter of doubt with me whether they will be here before the Spring. ——

Nothing new from Gen.l Washington, since the Loss of Mud Island Fort. ——

We have a Report that Gen.l Putnam has taken Fort Independence, I wish to have it Confirmed. ——

My Compliments to Doct.r Potts, Brown &c. & believe me to be with Truth & great Affection ——

Dear Gen.l

John Glover ——

Maj.r Gen.l Lincoln
